Days 1 & 2 • Depart for Sydney, Australia

Travel to the mysterious "land down under." En route, cross the International Date Line, separating East from West. You will "lose" a day traveling to Australia, and get it back when you return home.

Note: Depending on the departure time, guests flying from Hawaii and Alaska depart January 17.

Day 3 • Arrive in Sydney

Arrive in Sydney, Australia's largest city. If you purchased airline tickets from YMT Vacations, a YMT representative will welcome you and transfer you to the hotel. The remainder of the day is at leisure to explore the city on your own.

◆ Travelodge Wynard or similar

Days 4 & 5 • Leisure Days

Spend two full days doing what you'd like: admire the skyline, cross the Sydney Harbour Bridge, visit the Opera House, see the Blue Mountains or spend the day on the world-famous Bondi Beach. (B)

◆ Travelodge Wynard or similar

Day 6 • Sydney City Tour & Embarkation

Enjoy a city tour in the morning and visit the Rocks, Sydney's birthplace, and see fascinating relics and buildings of the city's turbulent past. Pass the picturesque Botanical Gardens, the Conservatorium of Music, and see spectacular views of the Sydney Opera House before arriving at the port, where you will board the Norwegian Jewel. (B)

Day 7 • At Sea

Day 8 • Melbourne, Australia (8:00 AM–5:00 PM)

Once the richest city in the world thanks to a gold rush, Melbourne is Australia's cultural capital with remarkable architecture, elegant galleries, and boutiques. Wave at a wallaby or get close to a koala at a wildlife park.

Day 9 • Burnie (Tasmania), Australia (7:00 AM–3:00 PM)

A community of artisans on the northwest coast of the island of Tasmania, Burnie has long a history as a community that makes things, with locally crafted European-style cheeses, fine papers, ceramics, and single-malt whiskey. Surrounded by accessible wilderness areas, get a glimpse of little penguins and the platypus in the wild.

Days 10 & 11 • At Sea

Day 12 • Wellington, New Zealand
(12:00 PM–7:00 PM)

The capital of New Zealand, Wellington sits near the North Island's Southernmost point in the Cook Strait. Take the cable car up the mountain or see some of the sites where the Lord of the Rings trilogy was filmed.

Day 13 • Napier, New Zealand
(8:00 AM–4:00 PM)

Take a walk down Marine Parade, a tree-lined ocean boulevard with fountains and gardens, or go out to the country to enjoy the lovely vistas, tour superb area vineyards, and relax with a glass of wine.

Day 14 • Tauranga (Rotorua), New Zealand (8:00 AM–7:00 PM)

Head to the beach or discover Tauranga's lovely parks and rich history. Visit a village buried by a volcanic eruption and captured in a moment of time – a fascinating yet moving experience. Take a selfie at Hell's Gate, an aptly named geothermal park with boiling pools, fantastic geysers and mud baths, the largest of which is Poutamu, "the stairway to heaven."

Day 15 • Bay of Islands, New Zealand
(8:00 AM–5:00 PM)

This subtropical region of around 150 undeveloped islands is known for its stunning beauty and history. From kayaking to fishing to wildlife watching, it's a water enthusiast's paradise. You'll want to have your camera ready for an abundance of sea life, from dolphins to penguins.

Day 16 • Disembark Auckland

After disembarking, enjoy an included sightseeing tour of Auckland, New Zealand's largest city, as you cross the Auckland Harbour Bridge to Auckland Northshore and the beautiful, quaint village of Davenport known for its chocolates, art, and many cafes. Explore the Auckland Museum whose collections concentrate on the history of New Zealand. The rest of the day is at leisure.

◆ Stamford Plaza or similar

Day 17 • Leisure Day

Spend a full day exploring the city on your own. Wherever you go in Auckland, you'll find something special – shopping, restaurants, bars, and galleries are surrounded by wine regions, stunning beaches, pristine rainforest and the magnificent Hauraki Gulf. (B)

◆ Stamford Plaza or similar

Day 18 • Depart for Home or Fly to Queenstown

Add our post-tour option and continue your vacation in Queenstown, New Zealand (optional and at additional cost).

YMT VACATIONS TERMS & CONDITIONS

GENERAL TERMS & CONDITIONS

*Prices are per person in USD based on double occupancy and apply to new bookings only; single supplements apply. For packages that include a cruise component, pricing is based on the lowest cabin category; upgrades are available at an additional cost. Pricing does not include taxes or round trip airfare, which is available. Seasonal surcharges apply to airfares, please ask your Travel Consultant for latest fares from your home city. Additional airline checked baggage fees may apply and are not included in the airfares quoted.

All sightseeing mentioned during port visits is optional, subject to change, and available as part of a shore excursion program at an additional cost. Any optional tours mentioned may change without notice and cannot be confirmed until final documents are mailed.

RESERVATIONS AND PAYMENTS

Tour prices are based on double occupancy. Tour prices are based on rates and tariffs in effect at the time of printing and YMT reserves the right to adjust prices in the event of a change therein.

Early reservations and non-refundable deposits are essential to securing space. Deposit schedules are for program costs only and follow these terms:

- A non-refundable deposit (first deposit) of $150 per person is due at the time of reservation
- A second non-refundable deposit (second deposit) of $200 per person is required 180 days prior to departure
- Payment of the balance (final payment) is due at YMT Vacations 90 days prior to departure

If you make your reservation after the final balance is due, full payment will be collected at the time of booking and your payment is subject to the non-refundable deposit requirements. Programs with special events may require additional deposits.

Failure to submit final payment by the above noted deadlines may result in automatic cancellation of space and forfeiture of non-refundable deposits. If payment is not received in time, YMT Vacations will not be responsible for lost reservations and/or additional cost to reinstate bookings with airlines, cruise companies and other suppliers. Payments can be made by credit card (Visa, MasterCard & Discover), check, money order or cashier's check. All payments must be made in USD ($). Payment is not considered made until it is received by YMT.

CHANGES AND CANCELLATIONS

To avoid miscommunication, change or cancellation requests must either be submitted in writing to YMT Vacations' Guest Services Department at the following address - YMT Vacations, Guest Services Department, 100 N Sepulveda Blvd, Ste 1700, El Segundo, CA 90245 or emailed to: guestservices@ymtvacations.com.

Name changes - No name changes can be made. In order to change participants, your original reservation must be canceled and a new reservation made reflecting the correct configuration of guests. Any nonrefundable deposits paid on the original account will not apply to the new booking; the new reservation made will be subject to normal non-refundable deposit requirements.

TOUR PACE AND DISABILITIES

YMT Vacations' programs vary in pace, but in general, they require guests to be in good physical and mental health. YMT will make reasonable efforts to accommodate the special needs of its travelers; however, such travelers should be aware that the Americans with Disabilities Act is inapplicable outside of the United States. Facilities outside the United States for disabled individuals are limited.

Accordingly, when you reserve your package, please inform YMT of any physical disabilities or limitations so that we can help you determine the appropriateness of the itinerary you select. Notwithstanding the foregoing, YMT reserves the right to decline to accept or retain on any trip any person as a passenger should such person's health or mental condition or physical infirmity or general deportment impede the operation of the trip or affect the rights, welfare, health, safety or enjoyment of other passengers. Refund of unused land services is the limit of YMT's liability in such an event. It is the guest's responsibility to judge the appropriateness of these travel activities to their physical capabilities. At times, vendors with whom YMT contracts may require a doctor's release to travel for travelers of a certain age or with special disabilities.

YMT Vacations regrets that it cannot provide individual assistance for walking, eating, or other personal needs. Anyone needing assistance in this manner must be accompanied by a companion.

AIRLINE TICKETS

Where guests elect to book airfare with YMT, airline tickets are issued after guests are paid in full. All airline requests must be in our office at a minimum 90 days prior to the tour departure date. Requests can never be guaranteed and additional fees may apply. The best routing is booked based upon the availability of the airlines at the time of issuing air tickets. Non-stops and direct flights are not always available and may require additional charges. Flights are booked at YMT's discretion to best align with meet & greet and transfer times. After tickets have been issued, there are airline imposed penalties to make any changes or upgrades. Guests are responsible for any imposed penalties when requesting itinerary changes.

CRUISE CABIN ASSIGNMENTS

Individual cabin assignments are made by the cruise line closer in to or up to the actual sail date based on names reported. The deck location (high/low) and position of the cabin within the deck (bow, stern, port, starboard) depend on category and type of stateroom booked. Cruise lines may upgrade passengers at no additional charge at their discretion. When multiple cabins are booked, YMT endeavors to keep the linked rooms in proximity of each other. Final cabin assignments are done by each cruise line's reservation unit and are subject to change YMT is therefore unable to guarantee adjoining or adjacent location, especially when the cabins are in different categories.

CONSUMER PROTECTION

YMT shares the coverage available under the USTOA $1 Million Travelers Assistance Program with affiliates of TUI Travel PLC who, as active members of the USTOA are required to post a $1 Million letter of credit with the USTOA. This amount is to be used to reimburse, in accordance with the terms and conditions of the USTOA Travelers Assistance Program, the advance payments of YMT customers in the unlikely event of a TUI Travel PLC bankruptcy, insolvency or cessation of business. Further, you should understand that the $1 Million letter of credit posted by TUI Travel PLC may be sufficient to provide only a partial recovery of the advance payments received by YMT.

Complete details of the USTOA Travelers Assistance Program and a list of affiliates may be obtained by writing to: USTOA at 275 Madison Avenue, Suite 2014, New York, New York 10016, or by email to information@ustoa.com or by visiting its website at www.ustoa.com.

YMT is a Delaware, U.S.A. corporation which is a member of the TUI Travel® Group of companies, one of the world's largest and most successful travel and tourism organizations.
