Day 11 • Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam

(7:00 AM–9:00 PM)

Today's port is a buzzing, cosmopolitan city and a true hub of Vietnam. Formerly known as Saigon, Ho Chi Minh City offers a combination of old and new, with well-preserved colonial structures, war relics from the Vietnam War, as well as sleek skyscrapers, vibrant markets and expansive shopping malls. A nice contrast to the city is the lush countryside of rice paddies and tiny villages along the Mekong.

Day 12 • At Sea

Day 13 • Hue/Da Nang (Chan May), Vietnam

Centrally located between historic cities, the port of Chan May is the gateway to Da Nang and Hue, the former imperial city. Da Nang, home to the famous China Beach, has one of the most beautiful stretches of beaches in central Vietnam. Established as the capital of unified Vietnam in 1802, Hué was the political, cultural, and religious center under the Nguyen dynasty until 1945. Marvel at the remains of the "Forbidden Purple City."

Day 14 • Hanoi (HaLong Bay), Vietnam

Welcome to Hạ Long Bay, known for its emerald waters and thousands of towering limestone islands topped by rainforests. Junk boat tours and sea kayak expeditions give you the chance to sail past islands named for their shapes, including Stone Dog and Teapot islands. If history draws you, head 60 miles west to Hanoi, the capital of Vietnam for 1,000 years. Rich in native and French colonial influences in architecture, it has been called the "Paris of Asia."

Day 15 • At Sea

The final full day on the cruise and your last chance to enjoy the onboard amenities and extensive dining choices.

Day 16 • Disembark in Hong Kong, China

After disembarkation this morning, enjoy an included tour of Hong Kong, a British colony until 1997 when it was transferred to China. Today it is an important business center and one of the world's most cosmopolitan cities where East truly meets West. Take a ride on the iconic Star Ferry crossing Victoria Harbor and then on one of the world's steepest funicular railways, the Peak Tram with spectacular views of the skyline, the harbor and green hillsides. The tour continues to the famous fishing village of Aberdeen with an included Sampan (boat) ride and then finally to Stanley, a popular market town on the south side of Hong Kong Island.
